

You Can Go Anywhere

Reading List

Books can take you all kinds of places. Here are some suggestions to inspire your child's very own adventures.

Bear About Town by Stella Blackstone

Bear likes walking around town and enjoying a different activity for each day of the week. Young children will relate well to Bear's fun-filled days.

Ages: Toddler – First Grade

Bigmama's by Donald Crews

Crews's brilliant illustrations and lively text capture the bonds four children develop during their summer visit to their Grandma's farm in the South. Your child will enjoy this autobiographical story about a very special family reunion.

Ages: Preschool – Third Grade

Me On The Map by Joan Sweeney

A little girl explores the concept of maps beginning with her room, extending to the world, and finally back to her room again.

Ages: First – Third Grade

Mousetronaut: Based on a (Partially) True Story By Mark Kelly

Mousetronaut tells the story of a small mouse that wants nothing more than to travel to outer space. While in space, the astronauts are busy with their mission when disaster strikes—and only the smallest member of the crew can save the day. With illustrations by award-winning artist C. F. Payne

Ages: Preschool – Third Grade

Somewhere In The World Right Now by Stacey Schuett

Travel around the world to see what is happening in different places at the same time.

Ages: First - Third Grade

Tulip Sees America by Cynthia Rylant

A young man and his dog travel from Ohio to Oregon and celebrate the wonders of all the states in between.

Ages: First – Third Grade

Find more books at pbsparents.org/bookfinder