Dear Sir,

I write you for information. I have a little girl that has been kidnapped from me and is now under bondage in Ga. and I can't get her back. This is the only her that No of others I want ask you in it—Law for people to whip colts—people and keep them and not allow them to leave without passing by reason for writing you is the people in Ga want to do anything with him and if the Necessity arise they will beat them to death and they are afraid to testify against him because they have written back and beat them to death and some of them had been killed trying to get away from their and I put her on their lap and let her go a way from their and if you come inform me please to write me How can I tell one the proper one.
