

General election candidate forum airs live on WSRE Oct. 6 and 8 WSRE presents "RALLY 2014" with local Leagues of Women Voters

Pensacola, Fla., September 26, 2014—WSRE, PBS for the Gulf Coast, has announced the candidates scheduled to appear on "RALLY 2014," a candidate forum for the November 4 general election, which will air live on Monday and Wednesday, October 6 and 8 at 7 p.m.

On Monday, October 6, "RALLY" will feature races for U.S. Congress District 1, Florida House Districts 1 and 2, Mayor of Pensacola, and Okaloosa County School Board District 3 with the following candidates scheduled to participate:

- U.S. Congress District 1: Jeff Miller (R), Jim Bryan (D), Mark Wichern (NPA)
- Florida House District 1: Gloria Robertson-Wiggins (D)
- Florida House District 2: Jeremy Lau (D)
- Mayor of Pensacola (non-partisan): Donna Clark
- Okaloosa County School Board District 3 (non-partisan): Joe Slusser, Rodney L. Walker

Candidates Clay Ingram (R) for Florida House District 1, Mike Hill (R) for Florida House District 2 and Ashton Hayward for Mayor of Pensacola responded to the station's invitation that they are not available to participate.

The Wednesday, October 8 program will highlight races for Santa Rosa County Commission Districts 2 and 4, Santa Rosa School Board District 3, Escambia County Commission Districts 2 and 4, and Escambia County School Board District 3 with the following candidates participating:

- Santa Rosa County Commissioner District 2: Robert "Bob" Cole (R), Wallis Lee Mahute (NPA)
- Santa Rosa County Commissioner District 4: Rob Williamson (R), Etta Lawlor (LPF)
- Santa Rosa County School Board District 3 (non-partisan): Carol Boston, Jim Taylor
- Escambia County Commissioner District 2: Deb Moore (D), Douglas Underhill (R)
- Escambia County Commissioner District 4: Grover C. Robinson, IV (R), Michael Alexander Lowery (D)
- Escambia County School Board District 3 (non-partisan): Linda Moultrie, Charlie Nichols

"Rally 2014" is produced by WSRE as a public service in cooperation with the Pensacola Bay Area League of Women Voters and the Okaloosa County League of Women Voters. The program's purpose is to give Northwest Florida voters an unbiased look at the candidates and an opportunity to hear each candidate's responses to questions on current issues. Independent producer Drexel Gilbert and WUWF news director Sandra Averhart will serve as moderators.

"Rally 2014" will also be available for viewing through Election Day at wsre.org/Rally. For more information, call (850) 484-1200.
