State Legislators Answer Citizens' Questions
Live on WSRE TV Program January 31
— Viewer Questions Needed —

Pensacola, Fla. — WSRE, Viewer Supported PBS for the Gulf Coast, will air a live dialogue with the Northwest Florida Legislative Delegation, Friday, January 31 at 8 p.m. "Legislative Review: Dialogue with the Delegation" gives citizens the opportunity to ask state legislators tough questions on subjects ranging from the state's budget surplus, the future of gambling in Florida, whether or not to expand Medicaid, or any other topic on viewers' minds. Legislators are expected to address important issues affecting Northwest Florida and the upcoming legislative session in Tallahassee, Fla. Citizens can submit their questions now by emailing them to questions@wsre.org or they can phone them in during the live program on January 31. All questions must include name and city of residence.

Participating Legislators (as of 1/24/14) include:

Senator Don Gaetz	Rep. – District 1
Senator Greg Evers	Rep. – District 2
Representative Clay Ingram	Rep. – District 1
Representative Mike Hill	Rep. – District 2
Representative Doug Broxson	Rep. – District 3
Representative Matt Gaetz	Rep. – District 4

About WSRE, PBS for the Gulf Coast

WSRE is a PBS member station that is locally owned and licensed to the Pensacola State College Board of Trustees operating as a service of Pensacola State College. The public broadcasting station has been serving the needs of the Gulf Coast community through programming, educational services and outreach since 1967. WSRE produces, acquires and distributes programs that address local interests and reflect the diverse cultural, political, geographic and demographic characteristics of its audience. The Educational Services unit for WSRE serves as the connection to teachers, parents, caregivers and children to extend the rich resources found in public television.
