

SUPPLEMENTAL RECRUITMENT ACTIVITIES
PARTICIPATION IN OTHER ACTIVITIES TO FURTHER DISSEMINATION OF
BROADCASTING EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY INFORMATION
WSRE-TV

October 1, 2012– September 30, 2013

- 1. Activity: Co-Sponsor, PSC Minority Job Fair
Date: February, 2013
Description: WSRE-TV co-hosts, with Pensacola State College, an annual minority job fair by creating and airing promotional information about the fair. The event is widely promoted in the community by the College's EEO/Diversity Officer, and is well attended. Spots were run on WSRE's main channel and on WSRE-World and WSRE-Plus 353 times over a 6-week period to promote the fair.
- 2. Activity: Upper Level Category Job Postings
Date: Ongoing
Description: Upper level managerial positions are listed in regional and national industry-related outlets (such as the Corporation for Public Broadcasting Jobline, CURRENT (industry newsletter), NETAonline, PBS Connect) to broaden the scope of recruitment for these positions to job candidates who might not otherwise be aware of such opportunities, in addition to regular local job postings (see 3. below).
- 3. Activity: Participation in Pensacola State College Job Announcement and EEO/Diversity Protocols
Date: Ongoing
Description: Pensacola State College has established protocols and practices to encourage hiring of minority and women candidates for open positions. These include supervision/coordination of outreach efforts at the VP/EEO Diversity Officer level, publication of the college's commitment to equal opportunity in all vacancy announcements, and inclusion of a statement of commitment to the colleges' diversity and equal access/equal opportunity in all managerial job descriptions. Annual evaluations for staff include demonstration of understanding and commitment to the college's efforts to enhance diversity, and, for senior management, accountability for effort and success in achieving the goals of the college's Equity Plan. Job announcements are posted to various print and web advertising mediums that service and support higher education. To attract qualified applicants, announcements are posted to job specific venues, higher education advertising sources, minority recruitment sites, local advertising resources, and the college website.
- 4. Activity: Television Production Intern Program
Date: Ongoing

SUPPLEMENTAL RECRUITMENT ACTIVITIES
WSRE-TV

October 1, 2012– September 30, 2013

Description: WSRE continues to offer internship opportunities to high school and college students to learn the basics of television production, promotion and business operations in a real world setting.

- 5. Activity: Publication/promotion of Station Diversity Policy
Date: Ongoing
Description: WSRE continues to educate its management staff in issues related to cultural and ethnic differences among citizens in our local community, and in our workforce. To this end, WSRE management collectively developed, and has put into station policy, a formal statement of the station's goals in this regard. This policy advocates for inclusiveness and diversity in the station's management, staff, programming and outreach activities.
- 6. Activity: Formal program of Management & Staff Training/Education in Diversity Issues
Date: Ongoing
Description: Pensacola State College offers a robust and continual offering of workshops, seminars and classes focused on increasing awareness of racial and cultural differences for staff and management. WSRE has made senior management attendance a priority. Courses attended by senior staff during this reporting period include EAEO Policy Review workshop and FCC EEO compliance workshop.
