

DOLORIS

TUESDAY, MARCH 27

AT 9PM

With intimate and unprecedented access, Peter Bratt's documentary tells the story of Dolores Huerta, one of the most important, yet least-known, activists in American history. Co-founder of the first farm workers' union with Cesar Chavez, she led the fight for racial and labor justice, becoming one of the most defiant feminists of the 20th century. The film, which premiered at the Sundance Film Festival, portrays a woman both heroic and flawed, tirelessly working for social change on behalf of underrepresented people, urging them to seek self-determination.
